

BBT – week 5

For this week we will continue with photography techniques. One of the ways to add interest to images is to look for patterns. Another is to use leading lines. These are elements within the photo that lead the eye to a particular point of interest in the photograph.

Find patterns in your home or nearby to take photos of. You can also include photos with leading lines.

Here are a few examples:

