

Child 1-3 development questions

1. At what age do children start to resist limitations?
2. What is the difference between parallel play and cooperative play?
3. At what age does cooperative play start?
4. At what age do children start to undress themselves?
5. When do children start dressing themselves?
6. What should parents consider when buying clothes for this age?
7. At what age do the signs of empathy start showing?
8. Interest in potty training starts at what age?
9. Why might a child have difficulty with potty training?
10. At what age does imagination become stronger?
11. Name two things that children 18-24 months can do now that they could not previously do.
12. Why is it important to display important behavior and language when children are very young?
13. What are night terrors?
14. Provide an example of activities at each age level for each area of development, physical, intellectual and social/emotional.
15. Describe how a child's motor skills change from age 1-3.
16. Recall a toy you enjoyed playing with as a child. What are the benefits of that toy for young children?