Happy Easter Asia, Austin, Brandon, Calvin, Chloe, Emelia, Harley, Jayda, Logan, Tyler, and Valery! I hope you were all able to enjoy a bit of chocolate while following guidelines to stay safe. Remember to keep your minds and bodies active too. If you are experiencing difficulties at this time, please email me at the address above and I can set you up with someone who can help.

After speaking with most of you last week, I know that many of you are still working long hours at your part-time jobs and gaining valuable work experience – practicing “soft skills” which you can take with you to any jobs in the future.

I thought it might be interesting to explore some unique jobs that most people may not realize exist. Here are a few links to check out:
