Hi There,

I hope everyone is staying happy and healthy. The time is certainly passing us by. Stay productive and keep on learning. It would be fantastic to hear from all of you out there!!

Week 7

Reading, Writing, and Listening Activities

1. I am sending a resource which you must read carefully, and follow along, as you go to links, watch videos and respond to the questions. When you must respond or write a paragraph, etc.... you still write it on word to send it to me.

Writing Activities

1. Complete four glossary word entries
Words 27, 28, 29, 30
27. invasion
28. irresponsible
29. midnight
30. misunderstood

Here is an example in case you forgot how to continue the process. You can use the example as a checklist to make sure you have completed all the steps.

Checklist/Example: What is the definition of the glossary word?
Does the word have a prefix or a suffix or both?
What is the root word?
What are some other words related to the root word (find 2)?
Write a sentence using the glossary word (it may be written using different suffixes).

Example of a completed word:

Antifreeze - a liquid, typically one based on ethylene glycol, that can be added to water to lower the freezing point, chiefly used in the radiator of a motor vehicle.

Prefix –anti which means opposed to or against.
The root word is freeze.

Two other related words are: freezes, freezing

The Bay of Chaleur does not freeze completely, during our long, cold New Brunswick winters.

As a challenge ask your parents, guardians, siblings, or friends to make up a sentence using the glossary word also, or see if they are able to define the word, spell the word, or tell you what the prefix or suffix is.

2. In this activity use your last five glossary words and create a three or more framed/panelled comic strip using all five words somewhere in your speech bubbles (representing the speech or thoughts of a given character in the comic). You may choose not to use speech bubbles. You may create your comic strip on a piece of paper and take a picture/screenshot to send it, or any means that you are comfortable using. You may color it or leave it back and white. Stick people are acceptable.

A panel is an individual frame, or single drawing, in the multiple-panel sequence of a comic strip or comic book. A panel consists of a single drawing depicting a frozen moment. When multiple panels are present, they are often, though not always, separated by a short amount of space called a gutter.

This link shows you the different types of speech bubbles.
